Garry Shandling landed his first television show "It's the Garry Shandling's Show" in 1985. However, made his biggest impression with work on The Larry Sanders Show (1993-98), a show about the trials, tribulations and double-dealing that goes on behind the scenes of a late-night talk show. In addition to performing live and on television, Shandling has also played character roles in feature films such as The Night We Never Met (1993), Mixed Nuts (1994) and Hurlyburly (1998).
